

CRET International Symposium 2007.3 - Time Table-

"Measurable Competencies Needed for the Future"

March 21, 2007 at Koshiba Hall, Hongo Campus, the University of Tokyo

13:00 Opening

13:05-13:50

Keynote speech "How well do school systems perform in providing young people with a solid foundation of knowledge and skills, and in preparing them for life and learning beyond school?"

Andreas Schleicher (OECD EDU, France)

13:50-14:00 Q&A

14:00-14:45

Lecture1 "Role of ICT literacy in Cognitive Skills Assessment"

Kentaro Yamamoto (ETS, USA)

14:45-14:55 Q&A

14:55-15:40

Lecture2 "Measuring Active Citizenship: A comparison of current developments in international surveys"

Bryony Hoskins (European Commission CRELL, Italy)

15:40-15:50 Q&A

----- Break (15 minutes) -----

16:05-16:50

Lecture3 "Introduction to the project of Students' Academic Achievement Assessment and Improvement in Middle and Primary Schools"

Cao Zhixiang (NCCT, People's Republic of China)

16:50-17:00 Q&A

17:00-17:45

Lecture4 "Key Competencies Needed for Future in the Republic of Korea
-Problem Solving Ability : Ability to Integrate-"

Joo Hoon Kim (KICE, Republic of Korea)

17:45-17:55 Q&A

17:55 Greeting

18:00 Closing

Organizer : Hiroshi Watanabe (Member of Board of Directors, CRET, Emeritus Professor at the University of Tokyo)

18:20- Reception (Koshiba Hall)